“Bradford Woods has changed my life forever. When I’m here, it doesn’t feel like reality. I get to do everything I didn’t think was possible.”

- Kendra H., Venture camper

Situated on 2,500 pristine acres between Bloomington and Indianapolis, Bradford Woods is Indiana University’s Outdoor Center.

We use our unique outdoor setting to provide therapy, education, and recreation to improve the quality of life for people of all abilities.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

HOME OF CAMP RILEY

Since 1955, Bradford Woods has partnered with Riley Children's Foundation to provide Camp Riley to children with physical and cognitive diagnoses. We impact the lives of thousands of youth by fostering lasting relationships and empowering participants to reach new heights in a barrier-free environment.

UNIVERSALLY DESIGNED ENVIRONMENT

We utilize the principles of universal design to provide a uniquely accessible experience to all of our participants, regardless of ability. This principle is applied to our facilities, as well as to our challenge elements; even our 375-foot zipline that soars up to 60-feet high through the woods!

RECREATION THERAPY SERVICES

We promote independence, self-efficacy, and physical and emotional well-being among our participants through the use of Recreation Therapy and other therapeutic adventure practices. These practices help us provide advanced outcomes to a wide population of participants, including youth with physical and cognitive diagnoses, veterans and their families, people in recovery, youth on probation, first responders, and more.

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

Since 1957, our school programs have helped students connect to nature – and to each other – through experiential learning. Using curriculum designed to meet state standards, we tailor each experience to meet the school's needs, providing education to 5,000 students a year.

TEAMBUILDING & FACILITATION

We offer schools, companies, and other teams a chance to get out of their comfort zones and work on outcomes through creative problem solving. Programs utilize our unique setting, including our high- and low-challenge courses, zipline, and lake – all set in our beautiful outdoor environment.

RETREATS & SPECIAL EVENTS

More than 200 companies, non-profits, families, and other organizations come to Bradford Woods each year to experience the magic of the woods. We provide full services to groups of all sizes, including catering, recreation activities, audio/visual equipment, Wi-Fi, and more.
